Holbek, Wessinger plead guilty; face fine, up to 60 years

Herman Holbek Jr., 31, Camp Lake resident, raised in Antioch, pled guilty to 10 counts of conspiracy to sell drugs and two counts of federal income tax evasion on Friday, Sept. 25, in front of Federal Judge John Reynolds, in a U. S. District Court in Milwaukee.

A date for Holbek's sentencing has not been set.

According to U. S. Attorney Charles Bohls, the government's prosecutor in the case, the maximum sentence that Holbek faces is 60 years in prison and a $170,000 fine.

Arrested along with Holbek, on the same charges, Ronald Wessinger, 31, Bristol, is slated to be sentenced in Judge Reynolds' court on Oct. 13.

Wessinger faces the same sentence as Holbek. Both men were arrested in May, Wessinger at his home in Bristol and Holbek in Twin Lakes.

They are still out on $40,000 bond, having paid 10 percent cash.

The Kenosha County Sheriff's Dept. aided federal agencies in bringing charges of distributing 11,000 pounds of marijuana in southeastern Wisconsin in the year following September, 1977 and owning and transporting that uncontrolled substance from rented residences in Florida in three motor homes for distribution in Wisconsin and other U. S. cities.

Wessinger was charged with reporting less than $16,000 in income for the years 1977-78, while actually having an income of $143,222.

Holbek is said to have had an income of $295,421, while reporting no income at all for these years.

Both men were originally charged on 15 counts of drug dealing besides the tax evasion charges, calling for a minimum sentence of 10 years in prison, without probation and a $290,000 fine.

They also were charged under the "King Pin Statute," referring to having made large capitol gains from a drug ring they organized. This carries a maximum sentence of life imprisonment and a $100,000 fine.

They originally pled not guilty to the charges.

Jaycees to certify hunters

Area residents will have an opportunity to learn basic principles of safe hunting at a department of conservation hunter safety course scheduled from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Oct. 3 and 4 at the old fire house, Antioch, according to the Antioch Jaycees.

A 1976 state law requires that all hunters under age 16 successfully complete the hunter safety course before they can receive their first hunting license. Participants completing the hunter safety course receive a Hunter Safety Certification verifying that they have passed the safety instruction.

"This will be an excellent opportunity for young hunters who need the course in order to qualify for their first hunting license," James Bruski said.

"It also can be beneficial for beginning hunters older than 16, even though they do not require the course to be eligible for a license," he added.

The eight-hour course includes instruction in wildlife management, firearms safety, hunter ethics, game identification, first aid and survival techniques.

For more information about the course, contact the coordinating instructor at: (312) 395-5047.

Carole reports Antiochans' remark draws fire

by CAROLE RISKA

Antioch's debate over senior citizen and low income housing is receiving a lot of attention. Even the Mayor of Waukegan Bill Morris happened to see in print several comments made at an Antioch Village Hall meeting.

The remarks were supposedly made by village residents and did not reflect kindly on Waukegan citizens.

The comments about wanting low income people from Waukegan moving into Antioch were made in the midst of a discussion concerning the proposed 50 unit senior citizen 10 unit low-income housing project being considered for Antioch.

Mayor Morris plainly stated his opinion of those remarks, in a letter to Mayor Ray Toft, who explained the circumstances. The Waukegan mayor was nice enough to be understanding.

But the issue of the 10 units of low income housing seems far from being settled. Claudette Skvarce, village trustee, assisted by volunteers took a random poll of households in the village.

She said the majority said "NO" to senior housing if the low income units had to be included.

Skvarce said that the poll was conducted from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and the homes that were called were from the telephone book from A to Z.

She said that she is not against subsidized housing for low income people but that she does not want Antioch to be subject to federal or county rules and regulations regarding the housing project.

Skvarce suggested that alternatives be considered, mentioning as an example a senior housing project in Deerfield that was funded by local churches and civic groups.

On the other hand Mayor Toft said the feedback he is getting is that the seniors want and need the housing. Toft also said that there would not be any problems in finding Antioch area people who will qualify for the low-income units.

Regarding the Deerfield project Toft said although the project was constructed with private funds, it is still partially subsidized by federal funds for maintenance and rent subsidies and is also subject to federal rules and regulations.

One of the regulations is that a point system must be followed. Having priorities are: any victim of catastrophe or a displaced person, low income; of village, low income; resident of township, low income.

When questioned about the Waukegan mayor's letter, Skvarce said that a mayor, who lives 25 miles from Antioch, makes no impression on her. It's the opinions of the people in Antioch that are important.

When I think about it

Reunions are great if you don't weaken

by GLORIA DAVIS

To those of you who have never attended a class reunion of 20 years or over, unless you are made of sterner stuff than I, don't do it.

Just send in a letter of regrets, inventing if you have to, some important sounding reason why you can't attend, like you have a meeting with Nancy Reagan to discuss her choice of linens to go with the new White House china.

Needless to say, since my readers are doomed to constant postscripts of my activities, I was not lucky enough to have been pre-warned and have just returned from a reunion of classmates from an exclusive girls' academy I attended a few (cough-cough) years back.

For the information of some smart alecks I know are reading this, Sherman did not burn my school during his march to the Atlantic.

First of all, do you know what a shock it is to return to the athletic fields where you took part in the school's roughest sport, a wild game of "piggy-move-up" baseball, to find a hard fought football game in progress?

To my dismay I found that my exclusive girls' academy has gone co-ed.

And you men complain about women pushing their way into men's inner sanctums!

Those lucky girls, I hear the ratio is two to one. All we ever had was Art and Physical Ed.

For the first few minutes I was sure that I had the wrong reunion. Everyone there looked so much older than I.

Then the thought crossed my mind that my classmates were probably thinking the same thing.

I arrived very proud of my accomplishments, sure that they would all be sorry they hadn't voted me the most likely to succeed.

As they each stood and told what they had been doing since graduation, I began sinking lower and lower in my chair.

"I've been married all these years to the same wonderful guy who is now president of Tycoon Industries," "I went back to school after having 12 children and got my doctorate in aerodynamic engineering and had a little input in Explorer 1's launching," "I have three lovely average children, one is an astronaut, my daughter is the woman's editor of Fortune Magazine and our youngest is doing his thing at college, captain of Oklahoma's football team."

And seeing the nuns that taught you, now out of habit and wearing pantsuits, is still hard to get used to. I had to mentally block out their hair and draw a box around their faces to figure out who I was talking to.

All kidding aside, it was really a lot of fun, but I don't think I'm going to attend the next reunion in "the home."

Did you know that the Antioch Rescue Squad was the first rescue squad in the state of Illinois and one of the first in the entire nation, having been founded in 1938 and chartered in 1940?

The Antioch Rescue Squad also had the first paramedics in the state. Many other communities have tried to model their squads after Antioch's but have failed because they don't have the backing of the citizens of Antioch.

Keep up that great support and buy one of the attractive plates that the rescue squad has for sale.

Sunday School kickoff an uplifting experience

The launching of helium filled balloons and a continental breakfast were two of the weekly attractions held prior to the Sunday School hour at the Antioch Evangelical Free Church during the month of September.

The purpose — to alert the congregation and the community to the fall Sunday School program — a promotion held yearly. Last year the balloons carrying messages encouraging a response, brought replies from as far as Findley, Ohio.

This year the helium filled travelers headed westward. Competing young teens tied several balloons together hoping theirs would travel furthest, while wide eyed babies in mothers' arms found it difficult to let go of the string.

Winifred Larson, heading home from a four month singing tour throughout the country, joined the Sept. 13 festivities. Ms. Larson, often called the "Kate Smith of gospel music", inspired the congregation with devotional messages and song. Recently Larson visited with Kate Smith, the famous lady who made "God Bless America" special to the American people. Said Larson, "I sang at the ailing lady's bedside. I had wanted to meet her all my life. She told a remarkable story of how it all came about.

The fall Sunday School program includes five adult classes: Contemporary Issues (featuring topical discussions as, "Does Jerry Falwell and the Moral Majority Speak for You?", "T.V. Boycotting, and "Is Technology Destroying Christian Values?"), Studies in I, II, III John, Studies in the Epistles, and Basic Christian Doctrines and How They Apply to the Christian Today.

Trinity student, Mark Dankoff, leads college and career age students in topical discussions of interest to them, and a graduated series for children of all ages through high school focus on "God's Plan for Me".

All are welcome to attend the school that meets on Sunday at the Antioch Evangelical Free Church on Tiffany and Highview Dr.

12.61% TAX FREE BEGINNING OCTOBER 1ST

The real rate of return on any investment is measured after taxes. Although many investments promise a high rate of interest, it's what's left after taxes that really counts. The Tax Free "All Savers Certificate", leaves many high-rate investments far behind. This F.S.L.I.C. insured certificate allows savers $2,000.00 of interest TAX FREE (Joint return), $1,000.00 TAX FREE (Single return). To qualify for the full tax benefits a maximum deposit for individuals is $7,970.00, for couples filing jointly $15,860.00. Of course, the interest earned on smaller investments is also TAX FREE.

To celebrate the first "TAX FREE" Savings certificate in history, Antioch Savings will give you $CASH$ when you open your "All Savers Certificate."

Antioch Community High School will present the 1981 Homecoming Show, "American Dream", in the North Gym at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 16, 1981. The three-hour presentation will include a presentation of the 1981 Sequoit football team, coaches, and cheerleaders.

To enhance the weekend, which culminates in the parade at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, the football games begin at noon, and the Homecoming Dance and Alumni Social at 8 p.m., an entertainment packed Friday evening has also been planned.

This will include the Antioch Sequoit Marching Band, the Jazz Band, the Swing Choir, the Award winning Pom-Pon Squad and the Drama Department in various skits and performances. Topping off the evening will be a 90 minute performance by Jade.

These six musicians recreate the exciting era of the 50's and combine it with an electrifying stage show.

The entire three-hour production will be offered by ticket only. Pre-sale ticket prices are $3.50 for adults and $2.50 for children under 12 years of age. All ticket sales at the door will be $5.00 per person, regardless of age. Tickets will be offered for sale in the general office of the high school and in the high school commons by student council members.

TODAY THIS HOUSE IS JUST SMART. TOMORROW IT'LL BE BRILLIANT.

Nobody has to tell you what's happening to the cost of energy today. It's all up, up, up.

So if you're looking for a new house, it makes a whole lot of sense to look for one with an Energy Smart sign out front. One that uses energy like a miser. That keeps the cost down, down, down.

That means a house with double-glazed windows.

With ceilings insulated to a minimum rating of R-19.

With walls insulated to at least R-11.

With exterior openings carefully weather-stripped and caulked.

And with an Electric Heat Pump instead of a central air conditioner and furnace.

That's the key. The Heat Pump.

All summer long it works just like central air conditioning. But in the winter it reverses itself. It takes heat from the air outside and pumps it inside to keep you warm.

What's more, the Heat Pump does that so efficiently it provides at least 50 percent more energy (heat) than the energy (electricity) it uses.

And that's very, very smart when you consider that the cost of natural gas has gone up 52 percent faster than electricity since 1967, and oil has gone up 113 percent faster.

Better yet, it'll be downright brilliant when natural gas gets deregulated or OPEC bumps up the price of oil a few more times.

The Energy Smart house. It can make tomorrow a lot easier to live with.

Commonwealth Edison
Don't take tomorrow for granted.

Sequoits scalp Bulldogs with big 40-14 win

The Sequoit varsity football team now has more in the win, than in the loss column since Antioch swamped Wauconda 40-14 on their home grounds, on Saturday, Sept. 26.

Antioch scored twice in the first quarter. An eight yard run by running back Mike Kotlinski, giving Antioch its first score, was set up when Andy Lehn blocked a Wauconda punt on Wauconda's 22 yard line.

Derek Olsen missed the conversion kick, so Antioch went on the scoreboard 6-0.

Antioch's second first quarter score came when Steve Crutchfield blocked a Wauconda punt at the 17 yard line.

Lehn recovered in the end zone for a touchdown and this time Olsen's good kick made it 13-0.

Kotlinski was off again in the second quarter as his 21 yard run put Antioch's third touchdown on the board and Bob Thain's run added a two point conversion, putting the Sequoits ahead 21-0.

With 1:23 left before halftime, after intercepting a Bulldog pass, a pass from Scott Poulter to Thain meant another Antioch touchdown.

With Antioch ahead 27-0, a last ditch attempt before halftime by Wauconda's Bill Gasparac, who completed a 63 yard pass to Autrey Gravel, plus a good two point conversion, saw the boards read 27-8 at halftime.

It was Kotlinski again in the third and another good kick by Olsen.

Wauconda made it 34-14 after recovering on a bad Antioch snap to the kicker and they almost did it again after another recovery but Sequoit John Silanoff intercepted a pass with Wauconda on their 23 yard line.

Silanoff took it for 77 yards to put the Sequoits final score on the board.

SEQUOIT PASS COMPLETED — Matt Stevens (5) catches pass from Quarterback Scott Poulter on 15 yard line during Antioch's win over Wauconda, 40-14.

Antioch runners beat Grayslake 15-50 15-40

Antioch varsity and freshman-sophomore boys cross-country team raised their record to three wins no losses by defeating Grayslake 15-50 and 15-40.

In the varsity race, Antioch was lead by Dale Plechaty, who covered the three mile course in 17:49 for first place.

Alan Ware was second, followed by teammate Ed LaPlante who was third, Kirt Vogt fourth, John Trieja fifth, Dave Minnina sixth, Tad DeRousse seventh, Bryant Rentsch eighth, and Matt Sweatt came in 10th.

The freshman-sophomores were lead by Ken Sandrik in first, with a time of 19:03 for three miles.

Matt Ellis was second, Joe Mirowski third, Art Neubauer fourth, Scott Miller fifth, Dan McGilluarey 11th, Steve Zolke 12th, Ray Troyer 13th and Erric Venn came in 14th.

Stage Review

'Carousel' falls short in PM&L opener

Reviewed by
ROBERT NASENBENY

THE PM&L Theatre production "Carousel" opened its second weekend performance Sept. 25-27 before about 500 persons.

This colorful and rhythmic musical hit by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein was only adequately executed by the Antioch theatre.

The play, about 19th century living and thoughts on life on the New England coast, was slow throughout and offered only sporadic moments of pure entertainment.

Rosline Trusky, playing Carrie Pipperidge, along with Mark Badtke, playing Enoch Snow, and Bruce Stamm, playing Jigger Craigin, offered those entertaining moments.

Trusky was simply delightful as she captured the hearts of the audience with her brilliant acting and harmonious singing.

Trusky, from Winthrop Harbor, carried the confidence one needs to perform well on stage. She repeatedly lifted the interests of the viewers when they began to doze off in the first act.

The entire cast was very nervous Friday night, often misreading lines. There wasn't the cohesive unity present among the players which many successful plays generate, and at times they merely read their lines, lacking the glowing excitement of a truly professional production.

Badtke and Stamm offered the audience something they could believe in. One could almost picture himself back in the late 1800's when these two actors performed.

Badtke played a respectable young man with high morals and goals while Stamm portrayed the jail bird sailor with no morals or goals.

Badtke and Trusky captivated the audience with their affectionate charm in the duet "When The Children Are Asleep," and held it throughout the play.

Stamm gave the audience a truly fine performance. Stamm spoke with capricious thoughts and whimsical sayings thereby giving birth to a totally different and exciting character the audience was waiting to digest.

Stamm's acting was most welcome as his colorful portrayal spiced up a rather bland first act.

Shannon Sherwood, playing Julie Jordan (Mrs. Billy Bigelow), and Peter Thelen, playing Billy Bigelow, were very good in their characterizations. The two, however, seemed to be lacking the life-like unity Trusky and Badtke captured.

Sherwood and Thelen sang very well despite their nervousness.

Director Tom Hausman and Music Director Betty Beveroth coached their cast very well in the chorus lines "June Is Bustin' Out All Over," "Blow High, Blow Low," and "Stone Cutters Cut It On Stone."

The musical arrangements were very strong throughout and was pianist Rosemarie Walsh.

Hausman's guidance of his performers showed strong qualities in the group scenes while the smaller, more intimate scenes showed room for improvement.

The set, designed by Hausman, displayed a lifelike atmosphere connected with the time period, while the lighting offered no diversity or changes in mood.

The costumes, also coordinated by Hausman, exhibited noble designs in its creations.

"Carousel" continues at 8:30 p.m. Oct. 2-3 at 877 Main St. in Antioch. Tickets can be secured by calling the ticket office at (312) 395-3055. Tickets are $4 for adults and $2 for students.

Stage Review

'Carousel' falls short in PM&L opener

Reviewed by —
ROBERT NASENBENY

THE PM&L Theatre production "Carousel" opened its second weekend performance Sept. 25-27 before about 500 persons.

This colorful and rhythmic musical hit by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein was only adequately executed by the Antioch theatre.

The play, about 19th century living and thoughts on life on the New England coast, was slow throughout and offered only sporadic moments of pure entertainment.

Rosline Trusky, playing Carrie Pipperidge, along with Mark Badtke, playing Enoch Snow, and Bruce Stamm, playing Jigger Craigin, offered those entertaining moments.

Trusky was simply delightful as she captured the hearts of the audience with her brilliant acting and harmonious singing.

Trusky, from Winthrop Harbor, carried the confidence one needs to perform well on stage. She repeatedly lifted the interests of the viewers when they began to doze off in the first act.

The entire cast was very nervous Friday night, often misreading lines. There wasn't the cohesive unity present among the players which many successful plays generate, and at times they merely read their lines, lacking the glowing excitement of a truly professional production.

Badtke and Stamm offered the audience something they could believe in. One could almost picture himself back in the late 1800's when these two actors performed.

Badtke played a respectable young man with high morals and goals while Stamm portrayed the jail bird sailor with no morals or goals.

Badtke and Trusky captivated the audience with their affectionate charm in the duet "When The Children Are Asleep," and held it throughout the play.

Stamm gave the audience a truly fine performance. Stamm spoke with capricious thoughts and whimsical sayings thereby giving birth to a totally different and exciting character the audience was waiting to digest.

Stamm's acting was most welcome as his colorful portrayal spiced up a rather bland first act.

Shannon Sherwood, playing Julie Jordan (Mrs. Billy Bigelow), and Peter Thelen, playing Billy Bigelow, were very good in their characterizations. The two, however, seemed to be lacking the life-like unity Trusky and Badtke captured.

Sherwood and Thelen sang very well despite their nervousness.

Director Tom Hausman and Music Director Betty Beveroth coached their cast very well in the chorus lines "June Is Bustin' Out All Over." "Blow High, Blow Low," and "Stone Cutters Cut It On Stone."

The musical arrangements were very strong throughout and was pianist Rosemarie Walsh.

Hausman's guidance of his performers showed strong qualities in the group scenes while the smaller, more intimate scenes showed room for improvement.

The set, designed by Hausman, displayed a lifelike atmosphere connected with the time period, while the lighting offered no diversity or changes in mood.

The costumes, also coordinated by Hausman, exhibited noble designs in its creations.

"Carousel" continues at 8:30 p.m. Oct. 2-3 at 877 Main St. in Antioch. Tickets can be secured by calling the ticket office at (312) 395-3055. Tickets are $4 for adults and $2 for students.
